Midweek 22/11/23

Women's 23/11/23

Saturday Open 25/11/23

THE TASTE OF SUCCESS!

Div 4: CMT 82-12 d Taroona 45-0. Paul Davie 35 d G Jones 6, Steve Davie 27 d B Wilkinson 25 & Dean Shaw 20 d W Eather 14. Another big win over the Trooner side with Paul and his rink going 'Gang Busters'.

Div 4: CMT 66-18 d Rosny Park 50-2 Tom Foley 23 d D Carpenter 15, Garry Francis 31 d R Baker 10 & Bill Miller 16 lt P Round 25.

Garry Francis had a 21 shot win & Tom Foley and his rink gave a good account for themselves with a 8 shot win. The other rink had their colours lowered which only goes to show that some of our bowlers in Midweek are human, but the team won overall and streaked to top of the pops! (The results in the BTS site are incorrect).

DIV 1 TOPPLES BUCKS, DIV 2 DREW WITH BUCKS & DIV 4 CRUNCHED ROSNY PARK

Div 1: CMT 67-10 D Bucks 52-2. Meekie Salter 22 lt C Thompson 23, Maree Morgan 25 d L Hall 17 & Jan McPherson 20 d J Lane 12

In a thrilling match on Thursday, Claremont Ladies triumphed over Buckingham with a 10-point victory, propelling them back to the top of the ladder. The weather conditions were ideal, and Claremont came prepared to play from the very beginning.

On Rink 9, the scores were neck and neck throughout the game, with both teams equal five times. At the 20th end, the scores were tied at 22 shots each, leading to an intense finish where C Thompson emerged victorious by a single shot over Meekie Salter.

Meanwhile Jan McPherson 's team showcased their dominance after a slow start, ultimately winning by 8 shots by the 21st end.

Maree Morgan got off to a strong start with a 5-shot lead at the end of the first end. Despite a rally by L Hall's rink on the 14th end, Maree emerged victorious with an 8-shot lead.

With this impressive performance, Claremont Ladies have firmly reestablished their position at the top of the Div 1 ladder.

Div 2: CMT 59-7 drew with Bucks 59-5. Helen Hoggan 11 lt J Gordon 28, Julie Copleman 22 d R McCann 15 & Di Sweeney 26 d C Gangell 16.

After an entertaining game the ladies played out a draw and received 7 points. Julie Copleman played her first game this season as skip and scored a 7 shot win. Di Sweeney was successful with a 10 shot win. Div 2 still remains on the 5th rung of the ladder.

Div 4: CMT 72-10 d Rosny Park 41-2. Zena Miller 12 lt E Atkinson 20, Brenda Pinnington 30 d P Berry 10 & Pam Cooper 30 d A Pickett 11.

A convincing defeat over the team from Rosie Park and 10 points in the bag. Brenda & Pam's rinks did very well to help the side to a 31 shot win. Still in 5th place on the ladder but a few more wins will rectify that.

TWO OUT OF FIVE GAMES PLAYED NO WINNERS!

Premier: CMT 62-4 lt Sandy Bay 79/10. Paul Hart 10 lt A Norris 24, Michael Taylor 10 d L Howell 13, Chris Chalker 13 lt J Lording 29 & Justin Plummer 19 d K Daly 13.

Despite the rain all day the Premier sides battled on and Sandy Bay was too strong in the wet for our side. Good wins came from Michael Taylor, playing his 150 game in Premier, and Justin Plummer. The other two rinks had trouble treading water, but tried hard.

Div2: CMT 70-4 lt Franklin 88-10. Paul Davie 25 d B Guy 18, Steve Davie 5 lt B Johns 27, John Davis 27 d D Welling 12 & Garry O'Brien 13 lt D Johns 24.

The team from the Huon must have brought their water wings as they secured an 18 shot win over the Mont at home. Paul Davie & John Davis managed to keep their head above water with excellent wins.

Div 4 Unplayed Just managed 7 ends.

Div 5: Unplayed Beltana was like a river.

Div 6: Franklin 15-12 d CMT 0-0.

A word of explanation from Mike Q: All was OK with twelve players ready to take on Franklin, however at 10 am the rain was very heavy and Trevor Fox had brought his bus. Franklin Side Capt. was contacted & wasn't sure if his green would be open, saying come down & find out. (Huonville closed their greens, by the way) Trevor is new to driving a bus and considered it unsafe to risk it in the bad weather. I agree with this decision. MQ.
