

Magnifico!!!

THE ITALIAN NIGHT

“Che notte fantastica”- translated into English = “What a fantastic night” And so it was.

Our lovely ladies prepared an Italian feast with the clubrooms decorated and all enjoying the moment. Many thanks to all who contributed and to Jason & Alan behind the bar.

Winners of the lucky door prizes were Rob Lockley, Craig ‘Lucky’ Coad, Rob Batge and Dave Howard.

MAN OF THE MOMENT!

From time to time we shall pick one of our members— man or women— to make a feature of.

This week it is Chris Chalker. Chris got up last Thursday and spoke about the weekly meat raffle sponsored by his business and how the funds will be used in the future. There are many possibilities depending on circumstances, but they will relate directly to members of our club.

What do we know about Chris?

Chris has played bowls for 33 years - New South Wales (11 years) and Tasmania (22years) Clubs: Batemans Bay (NSW), New Norfolk, Hobart Indoor, Claremont and Howrah
History: Played district and skipped a zone side in NSW. Played Southern Rep team for 10 years. 1 game in Tas State Reserves. Played 450+ games as Skip in Pennant Top Tier/Premier League and 180+ games in other positions

Chris brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to our group and it will be a pleasure having him with us.

He is General manager at Divergence Built

The members winter's draw of the week is sponsored by Paul Hart and his business

Last week (draw 14) on 18 July and was worth $20. The winner was Samantha Shaw who was present. This week (15th draw) will be worth $20. Be there or be square!!

- Important changes to the smoking laws around our club are coming soon. Please take note of starting date and let's make CBCC a smoke free environment and protect our artificial green at all costs.
- The first weekly draw of the two meat trays compliments of Chris Chalker went off last Thursday with the winners being-Adam Taylor and Craig Coad

- Pammie had a birthday last week.

*Reilly the lawn bowler went to trial for armed robbery. The jury foreman came out and announced, "Not guilty."
"That's grand!" shouted Reilly. "Does that mean I can keep the money?"*

Do you have any warm overcoats that you do not use anymore? The Rotary Club of Claremont is collecting same and then passing them onto Vinnies Van where they will be handed to people in need.

If you have such coats please give them to Mike Quinn who will make sure they go to the right people.

Thanks
